Index

access for customers with disabilities auditory, 136, 137
physical, 135–136, 137–138
visual, 122, 136–138
advertising, on the Internet, 128, 140 alignment, of leaders, 103 alt tags, 122, 137
Amazon.com, 11, 22, 125–127
Anderson, Chris, 115
anticipatory customer service, 5–6, 59–83, 133–134 benchmarking in, 67–68
dashboard concept in, 78–79 efficient processes in, 68–70, 72 emotional attachments in, 71–72 information about customer experience, 75–79 Internet and, 73–78
Lean Manufacturing methodology, 72
looking for defects/defective situations, 62–65 process-based solutions, 79–83
protective customer bubble and, 54, 96, 97–98 reactive customer service versus, 4–5 reducing waste to add value, 66–68 repetition strategy, 125–127 thinking like a customer, 59–62 training employees to anticipate, 94–95 apologizing fake apologies, 29
after service breakdowns, 28–29
slowing down apologies, 29 aptitudes, 84–88
Atchison, Shane, 116
attitude
pessimistic, 87, 103–104 positive, 86–87, 103–104 attitudes, in orientation process, 90–91 auditory impairments, customer access and, 136, 137 automated links, 25
automated mass mailings, 24, 25, 122–124 banner advertising, 140 behavior-shaping constraints, 67 beliefs, in orientation process, 90–91 benchmarking
in anticipation of customer service, 67–68 in manufacturing-based systems, 66–68 personnel, 89–90
Bezos, Jeff, 22
Bose, 17
brand ambassador process, 93–94 Branson, Richard, 117
breakdowns in service, see service recovery
Bryson, Bill, 60
BVLGARI, 2
Caliper system, 89
Cambridge, Chris, 132
Capella Hotels and Resorts, 2, 21, 41, 145–146, 155–157
captchas, 136–137
caring service delivery, 9–11, 53–54, 99
Carnegie, Dale, 53
CARQUEST, 146, 153–154
CD Baby, 123–124
coercion, avoiding, 17–18
Coldren, Jay, 143
collaboration, with customer after service breakdown, 31 comment cards, 50
commoditization process, 2, 119 compensation, for service recovery, 34–36 complaints handling customer, 39–43 suggestions of customers, 31, 35
total customer service empowerment, 40–41 compliant service, 133
conscientiousness, 88
consistency
of language, 15
see also standards
Continuous Improvement Systems, 62–64, 69
Costco, 112
costs computer-driven modeling of, 128 of customer loyalty, 108–110
Coulton, Jonathan, 124
Courtroom Method of service recovery, 27 crucial emotional moments, see goodbyes; greetings; service recovery cultural differences, 19
Cultural Intelligence (Peterson), 19 customer loyalty costs of, 108–110
developing, 1–2, see also anticipatory customer service human touch and, 23–24, 25, 117, 120–124, 126–130 impact of, 2–3
importance of, 1
lifetime value of loyal customer, 35–36, 41
nature of, 7–8
online, 115–130
pricing and, 112–114
survey proxies for, 76–77
write-offs versus, 43–44 customer rankings, 126
customer satisfaction elements, 7–13 caring delivery, 9–11, 53–54, 99 perfect product, 8–9, 125–127 problem resolution, 12–13
timeliness, 11–12, 104–105
customers with disabilities, 135–138
auditory, 136, 137
Internet access, 122, 136–137
physical access, 135–136, 137–138
visual, 122, 136–138
cynicism, 103–104
daily check-in, 98–100
Damrosch, Phoebe, 21
dashboard concept, 78–79
Day One orientation, 91–94
defect reduction metrics, 69 defect search process, 62–65 deposition, of service breakdowns, 33–34 disabilities, see customers with disabilities documentation, of service breakdowns, 33–34 drive-up windows, 61
DYPII (“Did You Plug It In?”) questions, 30, 37, 38 efficiency
in Lean Manufacturing, 66–70, 72 value maintenance and, 70–73 electronic surveys, 50
email
human touch in, 25, 122
language engineering, 24–25
live chat, 24, 58, 122, 140
mass electronic messages, 24, 25, 122–124 urgent email button, 122, 140
emotional attachments, 71–72 empathy
of employees, 86
in handling service breakdowns, 40 employees, 84–100
as brand ambassadors, 93–94 daily check-in standup meeting, 98–100 hiring standards for, 88–89 key traits, 84–88
leadership by, 106–107
moods of, 102–103
orientation process, 90–98
participation in hiring process, 94 selection discipline for, 89–90
total customer service empowerment, 40–41
underlying purpose of, 91–92 error-tolerant design, 67 evangelists, 118–119
excuses, 34
expectations of customers, resetting, 12 eye contact, 96–97
FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions), 119
Farmer, Tom, 116
FedEx, 66
feedback
checking your own company, 62 from in-depth surveys, 75–78 from in-house surveys, 75
online, 116–118
responding to negative, 77 from secret shoppers, 78
follow-up
immediate, 32
internal, 32–33
after service recovery, 31, 32–33
wrap-up, 33
forecasted actual production, in manufacturing, 101–102 forgiveness, after service breakdowns, 28–29
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs), 119
Godin, Seth, 2, 56–57, 124
good-byes, 141–144
as key customer moment, 18–19, 131
long-lasting, 141
personalizing, 141
problems, 142–144
resonant, 141
subcontracting, 142–143
telephone, 135
Google, 139
Google Adwords, 140
Google Alerts, 117
greetings, 131–140
customers with disabilities and, 135–138 human greeters and, 132–133, 138–139
importance of, 132–135
Internet, 139–140
as key customer moment, 18–19, 131
as level of service indicators, 133–134
Index

greetings (continued)
   negative impressions from, 134–135
   problems, 142–144
   receptionist and, 138–139
   recognition in, 134
   repeat visits and, 134
   in service process, 96–97
   subcontracting, 142–143
   telephone, 135
   timing of, 134–135
   website, 127–130

handoff minimization, 64–65 handoffs
   reassigned problems, 32
   reducing, in quality programs, 64–65 Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport (Atlanta), 9–11 hearing impairments, customer access and, 136, 137 Heil, Gary, 47
hiring process, 88–90
   employee participation in, 94 interviews in, 89–90
   standards for, 88–89
Homer, 132

identity theft, 55–56
immediate follow-up, 32
impatience rule, 11–12
in-depth surveys, 75–78 industry-wide standards, 111 information requests, 23, 122 in-house surveys, 75 Inn at Little Washington, The, 52–53
insults, avoiding, 17
internal follow-up, 32–33
Internet, 115–130
   advertising on, 128, 140
   anticipatory customer service and, 73–78 automated correspondence, 24, 25, 122–124
   captchas, 136–137
   creating online informational presence, 127–130
   customers with disabilities, 122, 136–137
   email language, 24–25
   evangelists and, 118–119
   greetings, 139–140
   human touch and, 23–24, 25, 117, 120–124, 126–130
   individualization and, 119
   live chat, 24, 58, 122, 140
   long copy/short copy, 119–120
   mass electronic messages, 24, 25, 122–124
   online commerce, 70
   permission marketing and, 56–57, 124–125 preference-tracking systems on, 57–58 pros and cons of, 115–118
   requests for information, 23
   Web interface, 120–124
   interviews, in hiring process, 89–90
Italian Mama method of service recovery, 26–27

Keller, Thomas, 21
kindness, of employees, 85–86
Krick, Beth, 134

language engineering, 14–25
   consistency, 15
   cultural differences, 19
   Internet use, 23–25
   for key customer moments, 18–19
   language handbook, 15–17
   listening, 20
   Negative Lexicon, 17–18
   nonverbal messages, 20–21, 97
   online communications, 23–25 price in, 114
   for service recovery, 30, 50–51 showing versus telling, 21
on surveys, 76
telephone use, 21–23
language handbook
importance of, 15–17
Negative Lexicon, 17–18
leadership, 101–107
alignment in, 103
challenges of, 101–103
characteristics of great service leaders, 103–105 by employees, 106–107
importance of, 101–103
in manufacturing-based systems, 101–102
moral, 105–106
motivation in, 105
in orientation process, 91
recognition in, 105
reward in, 105
in service-focused departments, 102–103 standard setting in, 104–105 support in, 105, 107
vision in, 103, 106–107
Lean Manufacturing methodology, 66–70, 72
Lexus, 64–65
lifetime value of loyal customer, 35–36, 41
lily gilding, 110–111 listening, importance of, 12
live chat, 24, 58, 122, 140
Loftus, Elizabeth, 18, 131
Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Awards, 62 manufacturing-based systems forecasted actual production, 101–102 Lean Manufacturing technology, 66–70, 72 theoretical capacity, 101 Martin, Demetri, 122
mass mailings, 24, 25, 122–124
Meyer, Danny, 18, 134
Milliken, 66
moods
of employees in service departments, 102–103 in preference-tracking systems, 102–103 moral leadership, 105–106 motivation, by leaders, 105 name of customer, 53–54
Negative Lexicon, 17–18
Netflix, 74, 121
New York Times, 42–43 non-compliant service, 133
nonverbal messages, 20–21, 97
Nordstrom, 42, 112
notes
follow-up, 141
after service recovery, 33
Oasis (Oasis Disc Manufacturing, 123, 145, 147–152
O’Connell, Patrick, 52–53
Ohno, Taiichi, 66
One Size Fits All (Heil), 47
on-time delivery, 11–12, 104–105
optimism
of employees, 86–87
of leaders, 103–104
orientation process, 90–98
attitudes in, 90–91
beliefs in, 90–91
brand ambassador process in, 93–94 creating, 90
Day One orientation, 91–94
values in, 90–91
pace of customer, 97
password access, 128, 129
pay-per-click options, 140 Penn, Mark, 120
perfect product/design, 8–9, 125–127 performance measurement, 104–105 permission marketing, 56–57, 124–125
Per Se restaurant, 21
Index

personality traits, 84–88

personalization
  of customer interactions, 80–81, 119 of good-byes, 141
  of greetings, 134
  of Internet interactions, 119 personnel benchmarking, 89–90

pessimism, 87, 103–104

Peterson, Brooks, 19

physical access, 135–136, 137–138

physical cues, 20–21

physical impairments, customer access and, 135–136, 137–138 positive attitude, 86–87, 103–104 preference-tracking systems, 45–58 caring delivery of information, 53–54 changes in preferences, 52–53 commitment to, 46, 58

  examples, 46–48
  moods, 53
  in online commerce, 57–58, 70 permanent information, 49
  permission marketing, 56–57, 124–125
  persistence in, 58 privacy issues, 50–51, 54–58, 74–75 real-time information, 51–52 security issues, 50–51, 54–58, 126 simple approach, 46–48
  technology in, 51–52, 54–56, 56–58, 73–78 volume as excuse, 82
  what to track, 48–51

price
  thinking like customers, 113–114
  in value proposition, 112 privacy

  of preference-tracking systems, 50–51, 54–58, 74–75
  protective customer bubble and, 54, 96, 97–98
  of surveys, 78

problem resolution
  in Continuous Improvement Systems, 62–64, 69 in customer satisfaction, 12–13 see also service recovery process-based solutions, 79–83

protective customer bubble, 54, 96, 97–98

public relations, 116–117

_Purple Cow_ (Godin), 2

quality programs, 62–64
  defect reduction metrics, 69
  efficient processes, 68–70 eliminating defects/defective situations, 64–65 handoff reduction, 64–65
  looking for defects/defective situations, 62–64
  waste reduction, 66–68

reactive customer service, 4–5

reassigned problems, 32

receptionists, 138–139

recognition of customers, 134
  of employees, 105

repetition strategy, in anticipatory customer service, 125–127

requests for information, 23, 122

restrooms, 61, 62

rewards
  by leaders, 105
  for survey participation, 77

Riedel, 110–111

_Ritz-Carlton_, The, 2
  Day One orientation, 91–94
  language handbook, 15–16, 18
  Mr. BIV quality program, 62–64 preference-tracking system of, 46–48
  total customer service empowerment, 41

Safire, William, 16

Schultz, Howard, 59–60
Schulze, Horst, 15–16, 41, 64, 91 screening telephone calls, 21–22
Scrimshaw Workshop, The (Bar Harbor, Maine), 132 secret shoppers, 78
security
of preference-tracking systems, 50–51, 54–58, 126
website, 126
Seligman, Martin E. P., 86–87
serial position curve, 131 service recovery, 26–44 apologizing in, 28–29
compensation for, 34–36 Courtroom Method, 27
disastrous handling of, 36–39 documenting problem, 33–34 fixing the problem, 31
follow-up, 31, 32–33
handling customer complaints, 39–41 Italian Mama method, 26–27
as key customer moment, 18–19
key steps, 27–31
language of, 30, 50–51
personal research on, 36–39 preference-tracking systems and, 49–51 problem resolution for, 12–13
reassigned problems, 32
reviewing customer complaint, 30 subtle approach to, 41–43
thinking like customers, 28–29 website service failures, 23, 62 writing off customers, 43–44 Sewell, Carl, 113
showing, versus telling, 21
simplicity, of preference-tracking systems, 46–48 Solis, 2, 41
solutions, for service breakdowns, 35
Sopranos, The, 20
standards
hiring, 88–89
industry-wide, 111
performance, 104–105
Starbucks, 59–60
subcontracting, of customer service, 142–143 subtle service recovery, 41–43 suggestions from customers, 31, 35 support, by leaders, 105, 107 surveys
comment cards, 50
in-depth, 75–78
in-house mini-surveys, 75 language engineering on, 76 mistakes on, 77–78
personal responses to, 77
Taco Bell, 61
Talent Plus, 89
Target, 111
team orientation, 87
telephone calls
good-byes, 135
greetings, 135
hearing impairments and, 137 picking up phone, 22–23 sample interaction guidelines, 149–150 screening, 21–22
after service recovery, 33
telephone numbers in preference-tracking systems, 57 toll-free service numbers, 70, 122 for website customers, 129–130 testimonials, 118–119
theoretical capacity, in manufacturing, 101
thinking like customers
in anticipatory customer service, 59–62
pricing and, 113–114
in service recovery process, 28–29
Thoreau, Henry David, 123
Tiffany, 112
timeliness
  of greetings, 134–135
  on-time delivery, 11–12, 104–105
toll-free service numbers, 70, 122
total customer service empowerment, 40–41
Toyota, 64
Toyota Production System, 66 training
  for anticipatory customer services, 94–95
  cost-benefit analysis of, 109–110 for language consistency, 15 language handbook in, 15–17
  by leaders, 106
  orientation process in, 90–98 passion for, 95
  principles of, 96–98
  after service breakdowns, 32–33, 35
  specific curriculum for, 95–96 trolling, 117–118
Trotter, Charlie, 61
trust, 34–35
TTD/TTY machines, 137
turnaround situations, 103–104 value, 70–73
  emotional attachments, 71–72
  price in value proposition, 112 as relative concept, 111 value proposition, 112
values, in orientation process, 90–91 Virgin Atlantic, 117

vision, of leaders, 103, 106–107 visual cues, 20–21
visual impairments, customer access and, 122, 136–138
WalMart, 22
Walt Disney Company, 2
Walton, Sam, 22
warmth
  of employees, 85–86
  in service process, 96–97
waste reduction, 66–68
websites
  accessibility for customers with disabilities, 122, 136–138
  automated links, 25
  developing, 127–130
  greetings, 139–140
  live chat, 24, 58, 122, 140
  password access, 128, 129
  requests for information, 23, 122
  security issues, 126
  self-service elements, 122 service failures, 23, 62
  urgent email button, 122, 140
  Web forms, 129
wheelchair access, 135–136, 137–138
White, Marco Pierre, 118
wrap-up, 33
Xerox, 66, 69
Zappos, 116