

Contents

1	Introduction: Opportunity in America—Setting the Stage.....	1
	Henry Braun and Irwin Kirsch
Part I Understanding Where We Are Today
2	Segregation, Race, and the Social Worlds of Rich and Poor	13
	Douglas S. Massey and Jonathan Tannen
3	Federalism and Inequality in Education: What Can History Tell Us?	35
	Carl Kaestle
4	The Changing Distribution of Educational Opportunities: 1993–2012	97
	Bruce Baker, Danielle Farrie, and David G. Sciarra
5	The Dynamics of Opportunity in America: A Working Framework.....	137
	Henry Braun
Part II The Labor Market
6	Wages in the United States: Trends, Explanations, and Solutions	167
	Jared Bernstein
7	The Widening Socioeconomic Divergence in the U.S. Labor Market	197
	Ishwar Khatiwada and Andrew M. Sum

Part III Education and Opportunity

8 Gates, Gaps, and Intergenerational Mobility:
The Importance of an Even Start 255
Timothy M. (Tim) Smeeding

9 Quality and Equality in American Education:
Systemic Problems, Systemic Solutions 297
Jennifer A. O’Day and Marshall S. Smith

10 Restoring Opportunity by Expanding Apprenticeship..... 359
Robert I. Lerman

11 Improving Opportunity Through Better Human Capital Investments for the Labor Market..... 387
Harry J. Holzer

Part IV Politics and the Road Ahead

12 Political and Policy Responses to Problems of Inequality and Opportunity: Past, Present, and Future 415
Leslie McCall

13 How Will We Know? The Case for Opportunity Indicators..... 443
Richard V. Reeves

Part V Seeking Inclusive Prosperity

14 Epilogue: Can Capitalists Reform Themselves? 467
Chrystia Freeland

Appendix: Members of the Opportunity in America Advisory Panel..... 475

Index..... 477

About the Editors and Contributors

Editors

Irwin Kirsch is Tyler Chair in Large-Scale Assessment and Director of the Center for Global Assessment at Educational Testing Service (ETS). He also serves as Project Director of ETS's Opportunity in America initiative.

Henry Braun is Boisi Professor of Education and Public Policy in the Lynch School of Education and Director of the Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation, and Education Policy at Boston College. He also serves as Project Co-Director of ETS's Opportunity in America initiative.

Contributors

Bruce Baker is Professor at the Graduate School of Education at Rutgers University and maintains blogs on school finance and educational policy.

Jared Bernstein is a Senior Fellow at the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities. He previously served as Chief Economist and Economic Adviser to Vice President Joe Biden.

Danielle Farrie is Research Director of the Education Law Center in Newark, New Jersey.

Chrystia Freeland is the Canadian Minister of International Trade and Member of Parliament for University-Rosedale, Toronto, author of Plutocrats: The Rise of the New Global Super-rich and the Fall of Everyone Else, and journalist.

Harry J. Holzer is Professor at the McCourt School of Public Policy at Georgetown University and is an Institute Fellow at the American Institutes for Research. He previously served as Chief Economist at the U.S. Department of Labor.

Carl Kaestle is University Professor of Education, History, and Public Policy emeritus at Brown University.

Ishwar Khatiwada is a Labor Economist at the Center for Labor Markets and Policy at Drexel University.

Robert I. Lerman is an Institute Fellow at the Urban Institute, Emeritus Professor of Economics at American University, and a Research Fellow at IZA in Bonn, Germany. He is also the Founder of the American Institute for Innovative Apprenticeship.

Douglas S. Massey is the Henry G. Bryant Professor of Sociology and Public Affairs at Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs.

Leslie McCall is a Professor in the Department of Sociology and Faculty Fellow at the Institute for Policy Research at Northwestern University.

Jennifer A. O'Day is an Institute Fellow of the American Institutes for Research and is the Founder and Chair of the California Collaborative on District Reform.

Richard V. Reeves is a Senior Fellow in Economic Studies, Co-Director of the Center on Children and Families, and Editor-in-Chief of the Social Mobility Memos blog at the Brookings Institution.

David G. Sciarra is Executive Director of the Education Law Center in Newark, New Jersey.

Timothy M. (Tim) Smeeding is the Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor of Public Affairs and Economics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He was previously Director of the Institute for Research on Poverty at Wisconsin-Madison.

Marshall S. Smith is a Senior Scholar at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a former Dean and Professor at Stanford, and a former Under Secretary and Acting Deputy Secretary at the U.S. Department of Education in the Clinton administration. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the National Academy of Education.

Andrew M. Sum is Professor Emeritus of Economics at Northeastern University in Boston. He was previously the Director of the Center for Labor Market Studies.

Jonathan Tannen is a Doctoral Candidate in the Urban and Population clusters of the Woodrow Wilson School and the Office of Population Research at Princeton University.

List of Figures

Fig. 2.1	Black-White residential dissimilarity and Black and White poverty rates in metropolitan areas.....	15
Fig. 2.2	Segregation trends in the most and least segregated metropolitan areas.....	17
Fig. 2.3	Percentage of households earning less than $30,000 in neighborhoods of metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	19
Fig. 2.4	Percentage of households earning more than $120,000 in neighborhoods of metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	21
Fig. 2.5	Percentage of individuals 25 and over with a college degree in neighborhoods of metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	22
Fig. 2.6	Potential home wealth in neighborhoods of metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	23
Fig. 2.7	Relationship between racial segregation by neighborhood to racial segregation by school district across states.....	24
Fig. 2.8	Relationship between racial segregation and gap in percentage affluent between poor Black and affluent White neighborhoods.....	25
Fig. 2.9	Relationship between racial segregation and gap in potential home wealth between poor Black and affluent White neighborhoods.....	26
Fig. 2.10	Percentage of households earning less than $30,000 in neighborhoods of hypersegregated metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	27
Fig. 2.11	Percentage of households earning more than $120,000 in neighborhoods of hypersegregated metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	28

Fig. 2.12	Percentage of individuals 25 and over with a college degree in neighborhoods of hypersegregated metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups).....	29
Fig. 2.13	Potential home wealth in neighborhoods of hypersegregated metropolitan areas (by various race/income groups)	30
Fig. 4.1	Conceptual map of fiscal inputs & real resources.....	108
Fig. 4.2	Input price adjusted revenue and spending	114
Fig. 4.3	Predicted state and local revenues over time by state	115
Fig. 4.4	Relationship between effort and revenue	117
Fig. 4.5	Spending levels and staffing levels 2011–2012	124
Fig. 4.6	Relating total staffing and class size	125
Fig. 4.7	Spending levels and competitive wages.....	126
Fig. 4.8	Spending fairness and staffing fairness 2011–2012.....	126
Fig. 4.9	Change in class size for 1 unit change in relative spending and relative poverty	128
Fig. 4.10	Change in salary competitiveness for 1 unit change in relative spending	128
Fig. 5.1	Distribution of real wage and salary earnings for full-year, full-time males workers aged 18–64 as compared to 1961–2000	139
Fig. 5.2	Distribution of real wage and salary earnings for full-year, full-time male workers aged 16 and over, as compared to 2000	140
Fig. 5.3	Cumulative change in real annual wages, by wage group, 1979–2010.....	141
Fig. 5.4	Changes in real wage levels of full-time U.S. workers by sex and education, 1963–2012.....	142
Fig. 5.5	Problem-solving proficiency among younger adults (age 16–24) and older adults (age 55–65) (OECD 2013).....	143
Fig. 5.6	Underutilization rates among U.S. workers (16 and over) by educational attainment, January 2012–August 2013 averages (in %).....	154
Fig. 6.1	Real hourly wage trends by decile, 1979–2013	170
Fig. 6.2	Real hourly wage trends: men.....	171
Fig. 6.3	Real hourly wage trends: women.....	171
Fig. 6.4	Changes in real wage levels of full-time U.S. workers by sex and education, 1963–2012.....	173
Fig. 6.5	Real annual earnings by wage percentile, 1979–2012.....	174
Fig. 6.6	First principal component: Five series, nominal growth.....	177
Fig. 6.7	Compensation as share of national income, 1959–2013.....	179
Fig. 6.8	Percent of time unemployment has been “Too High”.....	185
Fig. 6.9	Change in real wages by wage level given 30 % decline in unemployment rate	185

Fig. 6.10	Trade deficit/GDP and manufacturing compensation, 1949–2013.....	186
Fig. 6.11	Growth of the top 1 % income advantage and the college wage premium, 1979–2011.....	188
Fig. 7.1	Measuring the unemployed, underemployed, the hidden unemployed, and the underutilized labor force.....	199
Fig. 7.2	Unemployment rates among workers (16 and over) by educational attainment, 2013–2014 averages (in %)	202
Fig. 7.3	Unemployment rates among workers (16 and over) by household income, 2013–2014 averages (in %)	203
Fig. 7.4	Unemployment rates among workers (16 and over) by educational attainment and household income, 2013–2014 averages (in %).....	204
Fig. 7.5	Underemployment rates among employed workers (16 and over) in 2013–2014 by educational attainment, annual averages (in %).....	206
Fig. 7.6	Underemployment rates among employed workers (16 and over) in 2013–2014 by household income, annual averages (in %).....	207
Fig. 7.7	Underemployment rates among workers (16 and over) by educational attainment and household income, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %).....	208
Fig. 7.8	Hidden unemployment rates among workers (16 and over) in 2013–2014 by educational attainment, annual averages (in %).....	210
Fig. 7.9	Hidden unemployment rates among the adjusted labor force (16 and over) by household income, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %).....	211
Fig. 7.10	Hidden unemployment rates among workers (16 and over) by educational attainment and household income, 2013–2014, annual averages (in %).....	211
Fig. 7.11	Numbers of underutilized workers (16 and over), all and by type of labor market problem, 2013–2014 averages (in millions).....	212
Fig. 7.12	Labor force underutilization rates among workers (16 and over) by educational attainment, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %).....	213
Fig. 7.13	Labor force underutilization rates among workers (16 and over) by household income, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %).....	215
Fig. 7.14	Labor underutilization rates among workers (16 and over) by educational attainment and household income, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %).....	215

Fig. 7.15	Comparisons of the labor underutilization rates of low-income, high school dropouts and affluent adults with a master's degree or higher by race-ethnic group, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %)	217
Fig. 7.16	Trends in the employment/population ratios of teens and young adults (20–24, 25–29) in 1999–2000 and 2013–2014 (in %)	220
Fig. 7.17	Percentage point increases in labor underutilization rates among selected educational and household income groups of workers, 1999–2000 to 2013–2014	223
Fig. 7.18	Poverty rates of persons 16 and older in 2012–2013 by labor underutilization status in March 2013–March 2014	227
Fig. 7.19	Poverty rates of underutilized U.S. workers (16 and over) by educational attainment, March 2013–March 2014 (in %)	227
Fig. 7.20	Poverty rates of workers (16 and over) by underutilized status and educational attainment, March 2013 and March 2014 (in %)	228
Fig. 7.21	Poverty/near poverty rates of workers (16 and over) in 2012–2013 by labor underutilization status, March 2013–March 2014	230
Fig. 7.22	Poverty/near poverty rates of underutilized U.S. workers (16 and over) by educational attainment, March 2013–March 2014 (in %)	230
Fig. 7.23	Poverty/near-poverty rates of selected groups of workers (16 and over) by underutilized status and educational attainment, March 2013–March 2014 (in %)	231
Fig. 7.24	Low-income rates of workers (16 and over) in 2012–2013 by labor underutilization status, March 2013–March 2014	232
Fig. 7.25	Low-income rates of underutilized workers (16 and over) by educational attainment, March 2013–March 2014 (in %)	233
Fig. 7.26	Low-income rates of selected educational attainment/labor underutilized groups of workers (16 and over), March 2013–March 2014 (in %)	234
Fig. 8.1	A model of intergenerational transmission of advantage by life stage	260
Fig. 8.2	After-tax and transfer disposable income for households with children: mean income in bottom, middle, and top quintiles, 1979–2010	269
Fig. 8.3	Changes in real wage levels of full-time U.S. workers by sex and education, 1963–2012	271

Fig. 8.4 Never-married mothers by education attainment..... 277

Fig. 8.5 Unmarried mothers by mothers' education..... 278

Fig. 8.6 Racial and ethnic cognitive disparities at ages
9 and 24 months 279

Fig. 8A.1 Disparities in cognitive and socio-behavioral outcomes
by income level at 9 and 24 months..... 286

Fig. 8A.2 Disparities in cognitive and socio-behavioral outcomes
by education of mother 287

Fig. 12.1 American concerns about inequality, 1987–2012..... 422

Fig. 12.2 American perceptions of occupational pay and pay inequality 423

Fig. 12.3 American and international perceptions of economic opportunity 424

Fig. 12.4 Changes in perceptions of economic opportunity,
1987–2012..... 425

Fig. 12.5 Changes in perceptions of economic opportunity,
2001–2012..... 426

Fig. 12.6 Adjusted trend in index of concerns about inequality
(scaled 0–1)..... 427

Fig. 13.1 Absolute mobility: share of Americans who exceed their parents' family income 447

Fig. 13.2 Relative intergenerational income mobility 448

Fig. 13.3 Social mobility matrix: college graduate 449

Fig. 13.4 Social mobility matrix: less than high school education 449

Fig. 13.5 Social mobility matrix: Black Americans..... 450

Fig. 13.6 Social mobility matrix: White Americans 451

Fig. 13.7 Social mobility matrix: children of never-married mothers..... 451

Fig. 13.8 Social mobility matrix: children of continuously married mothers 452

List of Tables

Table 3.1	Trends in desegregation, 1950–2000: percentage of Black students in 90–100 % non-White schools, by region	48
Table 3.2	Funding of special education costs, percent shares, 1983 through 2010.....	59
Table 3.3	Main NAEP reading scores, 1992–2013: White/Black and White/Hispanic gaps	79
Table 3.4	Main NAEP mathematics scores, 1992–2013: White/Black and White/Hispanic gaps	79
Table 3.5	Federal, state, and local share: public elementary and secondary school budgets	88
Table 4.1	Numbers of states where funding fairness ratio has improved.....	117
Table 4.2	Spending fairness indices for select years	119
Table 4.3	Summary of changes in wage competitiveness	120
Table 4.4	Teacher/nonteacher wage ratios for select years	121
Table 4.5	Summary of staffing level changes over time.....	122
Table 4.6	Predicted staffing ratios for select years	123
Table 4.7	Fixed effects model of pupil-to-teacher ratio fairness	127
Table 4A.1	Data sources, years, and measures	131
Table 4A.2	Summary data by state.....	132
Table 5.1	Percent of 24- to 28-year-old adults in the U.S. in 2008 without a high school diploma or GED by ASVAB test score quintile and family’s income in their teenaged years in 1997.....	143
Table 5.2	Comparisons of the unemployment rates of U.S. adults 16 and older by educational attainment, 2000 and 2012–2013 (in %)	155
Table 5.3	Wages for full-time employment by educational attainment, 1979–2009	156

Table 6.1	Real annual earnings, 1947–2012.....	175
Table 7.1	Comparisons of the unemployment rates of adults 16 and older by educational attainment, 1999–2000 and 2013–2014 (in %).....	205
Table 7.2	Comparisons of the underemployment rates of employed adults by household income and educational attainment in 1999–2000 and 2013–2014 (in %).....	208
Table 7.3	Labor force underutilization rates of workers 16 and older by educational attainment, 1999–2000 and 2013–2014 (in %).....	214
Table 7.4	Comparisons of the labor underutilization rates of adults 16 and older by educational attainment and household income groups, by gender and race-ethnic group, 2013–2014 annual averages (in %).....	216
Table 7.5	Predicated probabilities for selected individuals 16 and older of being an underutilized member of the nation’s labor force in 2013–2014 (in %).....	218
Table 7.6	Employment-population ratio of 16- to 24-year-old by school enrollment status, 1999–2000 and 2013–2014 averages.....	221
Table 7.7	Predicted probabilities of selected young adult labor force participants being underutilized in 2013–2014 (in %).....	222
Table 7.8	Labor force underutilization rates of U.S. workers (16 and older) in selected educational attainment and household income groups in 1999–2000 and 2013–2014 (in %).....	223
Table 7.9	The annual money incomes equivalent to the poverty line, the poverty/near poverty line, and the low-income threshold for selected individuals and families, 2013.....	225
Table 7.10	Poverty rates of persons 16 and older in 2012–2013 by labor force underutilization status in March 2013–March 2014, total and by gender and educational attainment level (2-year averages).....	226
Table 7.11	Poverty/near poverty rates of 16 and older persons in 2012–2013 by labor force underutilization status in March 2013 and March 2014, total and by gender and educational attainment level.....	229
Table 7.12	Low-income rates of 16 and older persons in 2012–2013 by labor force underutilization status in March 2013 and March 2014, total and by gender and educational attainment level.....	235

Table 7A.1	Labor force underutilization rates of persons 16 and older by household income level, educational attainment: 2013–2014 averages (in %)	236
Table 7A.2	Comparisons of the labor underutilization rates of workers lacking a high school diploma with those holding a master’s or higher degree, all and by gender and race-ethnic group, 2013–2014 averages (in %)	237
Table 7A.3	Comparisons of the labor underutilization rates of workers from low-income families (under $20,000) with those from the most affluent ($150,000 and over), all and by gender and race-ethnic group, 2013–2014 (in %)	238
Table 7A.4	Comparisons of the labor underutilization rates of workers from low-income families lacking a high school diploma to workers from the most affluent families with a master’s or higher degree, all and by gender and race-ethnic group, 2013–2014 (in %)	239
Table 7A.5	Labor force underutilization rates of men 16 and older by household income level, educational attainment, 2013–2014 averages (in %)	239
Table 7A.6	Labor force underutilization rates of women 16 and older by household income level, educational attainment, 2013–2014 averages (in %)	239
Table 7A.7	Labor force underutilization rates of 16 and older by family income level, educational attainment level for Asian adults, 2013–2014 averages.....	240
Table 7A.8	Labor force underutilization rates of 16 and older by family income level, educational attainment level for Black adults, 2013–2014 averages.....	240
Table 7A.9	Labor force underutilization rates of 16 and older by family income level, educational attainment level for Hispanic adults, 2013–2014 averages.....	240
Table 7A.10	Labor force underutilization rates of 16 and older by family income level, educational attainment level for Native American/other adults, 2013–2014 averages	241
Table 7A.11	Labor force underutilization rates of 16 and older by family income level, educational attainment level for White adults, 2013–2014 averages	241
Table 7A.12	Poverty rates of 16 and older persons in 2012–2013 by labor force underutilization status in March 2013 and March 2014 by selected race and educational attainment level.....	241
Table 7A.13	Poverty/near poverty rates of 16 and older persons in 2012–2013 by labor force underutilization status in March 2013 and March 2014 by selected race and educational attainment level	242

Table 7A.14	Low-income rates of 16 and older persons in 2012–2013 by labor force underutilization status in March 2013 and March 2014 by selected race and educational attainment level.....	243
Table 7B.1	Unemployment rates of workers by gender and race-ethnic group in selected educational attainment and family income groups, 2013–2014 (in %)	245
Table 7C.1	Definitions of the variables appearing in the logistic probability model of being an underutilized labor force participant.....	247
Table 7C.2	Findings of the logistic probability model of the underutilized status of individual members of the labor force in 2013–2014.....	248
Table 7E.1	Findings of the logistic probability model of the underutilized status of individual members of the young adult labor force under age 30 in 2013–2014.....	250
Table 12A.1	Support of selected policies related to inequality and opportunity.....	439
Table 13.1	Dashboard of opportunity “Leading Indicators” in United Kingdom.....	456
Table 13.2	The Colorado opportunity framework.....	457
Table 13.3	Indicators used in the U.K., Colorado, the Social Genome Model, and Reeves’ paper on “Five Strong Starts”.....	462