Nội dung đề thi

In the test, you will be able to demonstrate how well you speak English. The test will last approximately 10 minutes. You will be asked questions by an examiner. You are encouraged to answer the questions as completely as possible in the time allowed. While most of the questions on the test may not appear to be directly related to your academic or professional field, each question is designed to tell the raters about your oral language ability. The raters will evaluate how well you communicate in English.

There are two parts in the speaking test.

PART 1: (4 marks)

You give a talk up to two minutes. You base your talk on a question that is decided by drawing lots. You may make some notes and refer to them during your talk.

Do not begin your speaking until the examiner tells you to do so.

Questions	Suggested Answer
1. If you win free ticket for a cruise, where will you go? Why?	If I won free ticket for a cruise, I would go around the world. It sounds funny but I like every corner of this beautiful Earth. I would spend 3 months for my entire trip. My departure point would be Singapore then I visit Korea. I am a big fan of Korean romantic movies, so I dream to walk in Jeju island especially in winter where I can dance under the rain of snowflakes. Moreover, I love the Sydney Opera House and kangaroos, so I would go to Australia next. Finally, I would like to see ancient buildings, historical masterpieces, and religious temples in Europe.
2. Is it safe to bring cash while on holiday? Why?	No, I don't think so because cash is easy to obtain and use, but there's always a risk of loss or theft. I knew a woman who was pickpocketed on the subway right after she'd withdrawn a lot of cash from an ATM. Thieves can be very hidden, especially in crowded areas, and you may have no idea what happened until the next time you look for your wallet. When you travel with a lot of cash, you need a safety system, whether that's buying a special pouch or money belt to store your cash in, leaving most of it in a safe in your hotel room, or splitting it up between friends.
3. Give one example of health and safety risks in a hotel. How do you minimize the risk to guests' health and safety while staying in a hotel?	There are many potential sources that may harm guests' health and safety such as risk of contamination. To minimize risk of food contamination, firstly I think the hotel should carefully check food processing. Rubber gloves can provide good protection from germs and bacteria. The hotel must ensure fresh and clean food given to guests. Also, both hotel staff and guests should use anti-bacterial hand gel. Finally, cleaning products can be toxic, so staff must always keep them clearly labelled and locked away.
4. Do you like travel by train? Why? Why not?	I used to travel once by train from Ho Chi Minh City to Phu Yen and I loved it. I took an 10 hour overnight train and had a comfortable berth in a private room with my family. The train runs across rural areas of Vietnam instead of going along roads like a coach. Therefore, I had a great chance to see imposing mountain and beach sceneries. In addition, food that was provided on the train was various and delicious. People sell many souvenirs at train stations too. Our family had great experience on the train; definitely, I will travel by train again in the future.

5. What type of cuisine do you like?	Vietnamese cuisine is my favorite type of cuisines. There are so many delicious Vietnamese dishes. First, People use many kinds of meat such as chicken, pork, and beef with a variety of fresh herbs and seasoning in Vietnamese dishes. Fish sauce (nước mắm) is the predominant table sauce in Vietnamese homes, Each Vietnamese dish has a distinctive flavor and very flavorful. Moreover, Vietnamese cuisine is reflective of the Vietnamese lifestyle, from the preparation to how the food is served. the ingredients for Vietnamese food are often very inexpensive but nonetheless, the way they are cooked together to create a yin-yang balance makes the food simple in appearance but rich in flavor.

PART 2: (6 marks)

You are required to collect 1 task card topic. Then, you take two minutes to look at the information provided. The examiner asks you questions which are related to the information given.

Questions:

Each question is worth 1,5 marks.

Questions	Suggested answer
1. What hotel can I stay? Why?	I'd strongly recommend staying in Park Hyatt hotel. Because it is in the heart of the city, you can easily travel to popular visitor attractions. Besides, with international standard of service, it is so comfortable for you to enjoy high-class of accommodation, restaurant, and additional facilities.

2. What food can you recommend? Why?	It would be a good idea to have dinner at a local food stall for authentic Vietnamese food. Banh xeo is a great option with special ingredients and flavour. The food stall is quite near to your hotel, so you can walk there in a few minutes.
3. Where I can visit in Sai Gon/Da Lat? Why?	There are numerous beautiful visitor attractions in Saigon. I recommend you can visit Landmark 81 which is the tallest skyscraper in Vietnam. They have a shopping mall, a food court area, and an ice ring for skateboarding. You can spend time there after your dinner because they open quite late in the evening.
4. What are activities that you can suggest for my trip?	Sai Gon is the second largest city of Vietnam where commercial activities are in full swing. So, I'm pretty sure you can enjoy not only fantastic cuisine but also great shopping experience. If you want to go shopping, you can go to Landmark 81 which is the highest building in Vietnam. There are many famous brands of fashion and household so, you can find everything you want there. You can also go to Bui Vien Street which has many bars, pubs, and nice restaurants there.
5. Should I bring cash for my travelling?	I suggest you bring some cash but not too much and you should use credit card instead. As you know that thief often target tourists such as pickpocketing, robber and breaking in; so, you might become their victim. It is safer to keep your money in credit card. Remember to use a money belt instead of a handbag to avoid bag snatching.
6. Can you give some tips to stay healthy during my trip?	In Saigon, the risk of sun burn is high because sunlight is very strong, especially if you travel from February to April. So, I suggest you wear a hat and sunglasses and use sun cream to protect your skin. Besides, you shouldn't go out from 12-2pm because sunlight is stronger during that time.
7. Can you give some tips to make my trip safe?	There are several travel tips for you to make sure having a safe trip. Firstly, you should not draw attention from others to prevent any crime such as pickpocket or robbery. You should Be discreet when looking at maps and approach people carefully if you need to ask for directions. Secondly, it's always a good idea to keep your friends and family updated about your journey so they know you are where you supposed to be.
8. If I get sick during my trip, what can I do?	If you get sick during my trip, you should inform your partners, your family and your hotel staffs about your condition and keep them updated. You should ask your hotel staff for hospital information to come and check your healthy condition and get medicine. Remember to spend enough time to rest and eat a balanced diet to keep your immune system healthy and strong.

9. Which type of transport should I choose to travel to Sai Gon/Da Lat or around Sai Gon/Da Lat?	The most convenient transport to travel for Ho Chi Minh city to Vung Tau is private car. It takes only 2 hours for you to reach your destination. Moreover, you could go to all tourist attractions in Vung Tau by yourself without paying extra fee for other types of transportation such as bus or taxi.
10. What can I do to prevent ... during my trip?	There are many things you should do to avoid getting sick during your trip. You should make sure that you start preparing at least 48 hours before your travel. This prep includes getting at least 8 hours of sleep each night before your trip and drinking lots of fluids. Be sure to get any recommended vaccinations before you leave. You need to stay hydrated during your vacation and get enough sleep and eat healthy and balanced diet to keep your immune system healthy and strong during your trip.
