Climbing Mt. Kilimano is hard but possible. The mountain is 5,895 meters high, and snow covers the top of it. Climbers need warm clothes and good boots but not special climbing skills. The trip is 50 to 60 miles long and it usually takes several days. Problems can occur, so it is important to go with a guide who knows the mountain well. It is also vital to be health and in good physical condition. The climb is a hard work, but the views from the top are wonderful.
