PART 1 Write T for true and F for false beside each statement. (2marks, 0.2 each)

1. While planning lessons for young learners, the teacher decided to focus on the Total Physical Response (TPR) method. She chose activities that helped them stay in their seats and work in pairs or groups. _____
2. An example for the adoption of the Silent Way is that first, students learn how to say words properly. Next, they learn to read and write. They use color charts and rods to help with the pronunciation of sounds. Teacher talking time is minimal. _____
3. To apply Total Physical Response Method, the teacher says commands and acts students out. The students try to perform the action. The teacher repeats by saying the command without acting it out. The students respond. The roles are then reversed. _____
4. A great deal of attention is given to students' feelings in desuggestopedia. It is important for students to feel relaxed and confident. _____
5. Community Language Teaching is an approach based on lowering the students' affective filter as much as possible to encourage acquisition. It involves creating a comfortable learning environment by playing classical music and encouraging peripheral learning using posters and decorations. _____
6. Total Physical Response is applied in an English class for kids when the teacher tells a story about animals, and then children make animal noises every time they hear the name of the animal. _____

7. To apply the Audio-Lingual Method in teaching English, the teacher tells a story about animals. Children make animal noises every time they hear the name of the animal.

8. To apply total-physical-response method, the teachers ask students to sing a song, “Head and shoulders, knees and toes”. They touch the correct part of their body as they sing the song. _____

9. An example for the adoption of the community language learning is that the teacher says almost nothing; the students have to listen to each other, think and correct themselves as far as possible. _____

10. The activity that the teacher walks around the groups/pairs to provide help, when necessary, belongs to Silent method. _____

PART 2 Write the answer to each question. (4 marks; 2 parts; 2 marks for each)

1. What is content-based instruction? Explain it.
2. What factors are focused in the Silent Way?
