Subject Index

Accumulation model, Korean, 63–64 investment policy in, 72–76 trade policies in, 64–72
Agrarian structure, Japanese revision of, 53–54 Agriculture, Korean. See also Land Reform, Korean and chemical fertilizer, 48 and income distribution, 146
    and Japanese colonialism, 34, 52–54
    mass exodus from (1982–85), 109
    and wages, 202–3
Allis Chalmers, 267
Appledore, A&P (Scottish shipbuilders), 276 Apprenticeship technology acquisition, 20 worker, 21, 22, 224
Argentina
    direct foreign investment in, 76
    government expenditures in, 93
    human capital indicators in, 218
    investment by, 119
    and late industrialization, 140
    school population of, 217
    wage increases in, 196
    workweek length in, 205
    zaibatsu-like groups in, 115
Army, Korean. See Military, Korean
Artisans, 193–95. See also Labor organization; Skilled labor or craftworkers Asia Motors, 15
Austerity measures in early 1980s Korea, 108–9
   and stabilization measures, 93, 94 Automobile industry, in Korea comparison with GM, 179–80
   HMC, 175–80
   and import-substitution, 81, 155
   just-in-time inventory of, 183–84 restructuring of, 132
   subcontracting in, 179–88
   shopfloor management and learning in, 175–79
Bail-outs in Korea, 15, 96, 97, 105
Balance-of-payments difficulties, Korean response to, 93, 94. See also Exchange rate Banks and banking, Korean denationalization of, 135
   nationalization of, 16–17, 72–73, 142
   U.S. for privatization of, 47–48
Big business. See also Chaebol; Diversified business groups;
Modern industrial enterprise
   economic performance of, 117–19
   and late industrialization, 140–41
   in market-augmenting paradigm, 150
   in Park's view, 14 role of (Korea), 115
   social effects of, 116–17
   specialized (Korea), 159 and state discipline, 14–17, 63–64, 120, 129, 145–47. See also Discipline of business state in harmony with (Korea), 130, 136, 151 Big Push into heavy industry, vi debt from, 152
   and economic performance, 94, 99, 118 export targets in, 16
   and inflation, 100
   and POSCO, 316
   and protest action, 101
   state role in, 81 (p.360)
Blue-collar workers
   proportion of, in Korea and U.S., 171–72
   and wage dispersion (Korea), 208
Borrowing, foreign. See Foreign borrowing by Korea Brazil, v
   agricultural labor force in, 203
   direct foreign investment in, 76
diversified business groups in, 151
and education, 239
firm size and value-added in, 162
government expenditures in, 93
and growth-wage relation, 200
human capital indicators in, 218
and late industrialization through learning, 4, 140, 320
as POSCO competitor, 301
school population of, 217
shipbuilding by, 271
steel costs and efficiency in, 297, 298, 300
subsidies in, 8
wage increases in, 196
zaibatsu-like groups in, 115

Britain (England, United Kingdom) educated populations of, 216, 217
firm size and value-added in, 162
First Industrial Revolution in, 3
government intervention in, 12
Hyundai technology from, 175
and invention, v, 4, 59, 319–20
vs. Japan in textiles market, 60–61
Korean technology from, 233, 276
steel labor-cost in, 296 textile plant rebuilt by, 248
trade unions in, 193
Veblen on, 21
wages in (1781–1851), 196, 197

Broken Hills Proprietary Corporation (BHP), 302 Budgets, government (Korea/Japan/Taiwan), 88, 90
Business, diversification of. See Diversification by business Business, and liberal market ideals, 323. See also Big business; Entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship
Business, small- and medium-size. See Small- and medium-size firms, Korean Capital, foreign. See Direct foreign investment in Korea; Foreign borrowing by Korea Capital deepening, 166–67, 246–47, 265, 268, 303–4

Capital flight, controls on, 17–18
Capital goods, technology transfers by, 233 Capital-intensive industries, Korean. See also Heavy industry diversification into, 85
managerialism in, 166–67
profitability data on, 85, 87
and steel-making, 291
and wage dispersion, 206, 208
Capital widening, 166, 246, 255, 268, 303–4
Catching-up process, 28–20. See also Learning, in late industrialization

Cement industry, Korean, 87, 262–66
  government favoritism in, 73
  Hyundai Cement Company, 266–67, 287

Central Intelligence Agency, Korean, labor affairs under, 208, 324

Centralized management coordination, 123–25, 129

Chaebol (diversified business groups in Korea), 9, 40, 64, 151. See also Diversified business groups; Modern industrial enterprise advantage to members of, 286–87, 290 as agents of industrialization, 119, 243 antecedents of, 246, 268
  and cement industry (vs. textiles), 247, 262 competition among, 129–30, 151–52 and cotton textiles, 236, 246, 258
  and countervailing forces, 131
  diversification of, 120, 125, 127–28, 130
  and economic concentration, 115, 116, 122, 136
  economic performance of, 118–20
  functions of presidents in, 167–68 government favoritism toward, 73
  and inequality, 328
  and labor bureaucracy, 208–9
  and labor relations, 324–25
  layoff policies of, 107n (p.361)
  and machinery-industry licensing, 103 managerial recruitment by, 173 merging among, 142
  and POSCO, 314
  and R&D, 328
  social effects of, 118
  and state, 88, 152
  and steel making (POSCO), 293, 295 structure of, 170
  in workers’ lives, 101
  as young manufacturers, 235–38

Cheil Sugar Company, 236
Cheil Wool Company, 235–38, 258

China
  Japanese and British textiles in, 60
  Koreans in (WWII), 34–35
  as potential competitor for Japan, 33

Chungnam Spinning, 258

Class differences in Korea, and liberation movements, 28

Cold War, and Korea, 35–38, 142

Colombia
  government expenditures in, 93
large to small firms in, 161
Colonialism. See also Japanese colonialism in Korea and Indian artisans, 194 and Japan vs. other late industrializers, 60 and labor supply, 191
and late industrialization, 12
Communism, in Korea, 35
and anticomunism, 49
Comparative advantage. See also Dynamics of comparative advantage diversification as, 243
dynamics of, 244-45, 246, 268, 292
for HHI, 273
and Korean electronics, 82 and Korean exports, 153
of Korean steel-making, 316 and market-conforming paradigm, 143, 155
and specialization, 323-24 stages of, 243-44
and U.S. aid to Korea, 43 Competition. See also Market mechanism or forces by chaebol, 129-30, 151-52
and growth, 150
and Korean market-augmenting paradigm, 153
Competition, oligopolistic, 129-30, 150
Comprehensive Stabilization Plan (CSP), 94, 104, 109
Computer industry, Korean, 82-83 Computer systems
at HHI, 286
and POSCO, 305, 310
Concentration. See Economic concentration Confucianism and Korean capitalism, 31
and yangban elite, 29
Conglomerates, 124-25. See also Chaebol; Diversified business groups Consultants
and HHI, 279, 284
for POSCO, 309
technology transfer through, 234, 248
Consumers, Park on, 131
Contradictions of modernization, 31-35 Corruption. See Profiteering and illicit wealth; Rent seeking Cost control, at HHI, 282, 284-86
Cotton textile industry, Korean, 55-56, 142-43, 245-46 and chaebol (diversified business groups), 236, 243, 246, 258 “D” as firm in, 247-50, 251-52, 255, 257, 258, 259, 260 difficulties of diversification from, 257-60 factors in success of, 78 female laborers in, 250–51, 252
government intervention in, 14, 64–68, 78
hands-on management in, 252–53 and Korean trade policies, 64–68 and Korean War, 248
and newer industries, 20
as oligopoly, 65 quality control circles in, 251–52 short-run strategy of, 20, 253, 255–57
vs. technology-transfer industries, 209 uncertainties of upscaling in, 260–61

(p.362)
U.S. import from prohibited, 56–57, 66, 143
wages in, 249, 251
Country, the Revolution, and I, The (Park autobiography), 14, 50, 322
Coup d’état off May 1961, 37, 48, 49, 52, 64, 142
Craftworkers, 7, 193–95. See also Labor organization Credit, foreign. See Foreign borrowing by Korea Credit, government control of, 73. See also Banks and banking, Korean Credit allocation, and machinery industry, 103–4
Cultural explanations for market behavior, 200, 320
Current account, Korean, 75, 90, 91 deficit in (1978–80), 104 and GNP, 56
and oil crisis, 98, 99
Daelim Engineering Company, 15
Daewoo Electronics, and Taihan group, 15 Daewoo group, 73
diversification by, 127
joint ventures by, 83
in shipbuilding, 272–73, 290
Daewoo Motor Corporation
and Shinjin, 15
vendor development department of, 184 Debt, Korea, foreign. See Foreign borrowing by Korea; Foreign debt, Korean Debt equity ratios, Korean of chaebol, 128
high level of, 103, 104
Debt financing, in Korea, 94–96
Debt/GNP ratio, Korea, vi, 94–96, 107, 118, 152
Democracy, in Korea
and industrial expansion, 148
and Korean government measures, 18
and Korean industrialization, 148, 327
students for, 48, 148
Democratic pluralism, and policy toward chaebol, 130-31
Denmark, HEMCO technology from, 280 Devaluations, Korean in 1960s, 65-66, 67, 77
  in 1971, 96, 97, 98
  U.S.-engendered, 44
Direct foreign investment in Korea, 9, 74, 76, 77, 147
Discipline of business (Korea), vi, 14-18, 63-64, 120, 129, 145-47.
See also Market-augmenting paradigm; State through countervailing power, 130-31
  and HHI, 273
  through liberalization, 120, 133-36, 137
  and monopoly power, 129-37 through oligopolistic competition, 129-30 and productivity, vi. See also Productivity through restructuring, 132-34
Diversification (Korea), 119-20, 123-25 corporate strategy toward, 125-29 difficulties of (textile industry), 257-60
  government role in, 80, 84-85, 88
  by KSEC, 290
  and late industrialization, 239
  nonlinear, 243
  requirements for, 258
Diversified business groups, v, 39-41, 150, 151-52. See also Modern industrial enterprise chaebol as, 9, 40, 151. See also Chaebol in late industrialization, 151, 244-55
Division of labor, international, 18-19, 57, 59-63
Doosan group, 126
Duopolies, in Korea, 120-21
Dynamic of late industrialization, 109-12, 113, 150, 152-53, 323
Dynamics of comparative advantage, 244-45, 246, 268, 292 Economic concentration (Korea), 115, 116, 120-25, 146 through buyouts, 135-36
  and market mechanism, 134-37, 328 (p.363)
Economic Planning Board (EPB), 81, 84, 129 Economies of scale, 117, 167
  in growth dynamic, 152, 153
  as growth effect, 111
  and specialization, 324 Economies of scope, 117, 167
  diversification as, 151
  group coordination as, 129
Education in Korea, 215, 216, 217-21, 238-39 imperfections of, 146-47, 219-20
and inexperience of managers, 227–29 investment in, 23, 147, 221, 328
and investment opportunities, 235
under Japanese rule, 33 and literary, 147, 221–22
among managers and engineers, 225–27
POSCO engineering college, 306
POSCO school system and general training, 210, 211
among production workers, 221–25 and reward structure, 229–31 and status of teaching, 219
in textile firms, 252
Efficiency, and freer markets, 328. See also Liberalization Electronics industry, Korean, 19–20, 81–84 Energy crisis. See Oil crises, Korean response to Engineers, 9–10. See also Managers, salaried; Shopfloor management education level of (Korea), 225–26 German, 22
at HHI, 288–89
at HMC, 177, 184
and Korean management, 10, 160, 171, 172
in Korean textile firms, 253, 260, 261
and late industrialization, 9–10, 320
at POSCO, 315–16
on shop floor in Japan, 229 wage level of (Korea), 229–31
England. See Britain Entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship, v, 9 in dynamics of comparative advantage, 244–45 functions of, 80 government as, 79–80, 84, 144
and investment rate, 99–100 Entrepreneurship in Korea, 79–81
and electronics, 81–84
large landowners as source of, 235 and locus of initiative, 84–85 and new diversified group, 39–41
and state, 17, 80–84, 112
state-business cooperation in, 88
EPB (Economic Planning Board), 81, 84, 129
Equality and inequality, in Korea, 38, 328
European countries, as learners, 321. See also Western Europe Exchange rate
Japanese, 62
and late industrializers, 144, 145
Exchange rate, Korean, 56
and exports, 105, 106, 107, 144
and imports, 62
and liberalization, 77-78
multiple, 74
and 1980s austerity program, 108
in stabilizations, 105
and subsidies, 66, 67, 143

Expertise, and diversification, 126. See also Engineers; Managers, salaried

Export dependence, Korean, 70–72

Exports
and exchange rate, 105, 106, 107, 144
and growth, 154
Japanese, 62
and stages of comparative advantage, 243–44

Exports, Korean
in accumulation model, 63
cotton textiles as, 56–57, 66, 143, 245
and exchange rates, 105, 106, 107, 144 government compulsion for, 69 government subsidies for, 67–68, 74
growth rate of, 55, 56, 57, 58, 66–67, 70, 71, 96, 107
historical phases of, 154
as Park goal, 68–69
by POSCO, 301
and relative prices, 153–55 (p.364) and smaller firms, 181

Export targets, 16, 147

External debt, Korean. See Foreign debt, Korean

Externalities, from Korean export activity, 154–55

Fallacy of identity, 141

Family ownership structure, 128, 167

Federation of Korean Industries, 133, 208

Female laborers. See Women, Korean

Financial liberalization, 134–36

Firm, and growth-productivity loop, 112, 113

Firms, large. See Big business; Chaebol; Diversified business groups; Modern industrial enterprise Firms, small- and medium-size. See Small- and medium-size firms, Korean

First Industrial Revolution. See Industrial Revolution, First

Five-year plan(s), 84
first, 84
fourth, 81–82, 223
second, 81
technology transfers in periods of, 263

Foreign aid to Korea. See also International Monetary Fund, in Korea; World Bank, in Korea for cotton spinning and weaving, 64–65 intervention with, 64
by U.S., 38–39, 43, 45, 46–47, 52, 64, 67
Foreign borrowing by Korea cost of, 74, 76, 77
and debt financing, 94–95 and debt/GNP ratio, vi, 94–96, 107, 118, 152
for electronics, 82
and government investment, 90–91
and HHI, 276
and oil crisis, 98
for textile industry, 78 Foreign (external) debt, Korean, 95 and austerity program, 108 and Big Push, vi
growth of
in 1962–71, 94
in 1979–81, 105
and oil crisis, 98
and stabilization (1970–71), 96
and U.S., 49
Foreign exchange, Korean, from light manufactures, 154
Foreign exchange rate, Korean. See Exchange rate, Korean Foreign investment, direct, in Korea, 74, 76, 77, 147
Foreign licenses (Korea), 232–33. See also Technology transfer; and individual industries Foreign loans. See Foreign borrowing by Korea
Foreign technology or technical assistance. See Technology transfer Free market. See Market mechanism or forces General Electric, and concentration, 116
General Motors
and concentration, 116
Hyundai compared with, 179–80
General trading companies (GTCs), 129n Germany
apprenticeship system in, 224
big business in, 116
capacity reductions in (1920), 132
catching-up process in, 21–22, 23
education in, 216, 217, 221 financiers-businessmen in, 226
Second Industrial Revolution in, 3, 4, 12
trade unions in, 193
Germany, West (“Germany” in contemporary time period) and Cheil wool, 237
HEMCO technology from, 280
Korean technology from, 233
steel costs and efficiency in, 296, 298, 299, 300
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>GNP, Korean, 55, 56, 57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and stabilization policies, 96, 99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and trade ratio, 72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Goldstar. See Lucky-Goldstar group</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Govan (Scottish shipyard), 277, 279</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Government. See State</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Government budgets, balancing of (Korea/Japan/Taiwan), 88, 90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Government spending, for Korea vs. other countries, 92, 93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Great Britain. See Britain</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gross National Product, Korean. See GNP, Korean</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gross rate of return, for various Korean industries, 85–87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Growth, economic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and democracy vs. dictatorship, 148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in dynamic of late industrialization, 109–12, 113, 146, 150, 323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and exports, 154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>through innovation vs. learning, 4–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Growth effects, 111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Growth in Korean economy, 55–57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in dynamic of late industrialization, 152–53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>during high-aid era, 40–41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and nationally-owned firms, 147</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as post-coup goal, 49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and profit maximization, 88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stabilization policies for, 93–94. See also Stabilization policies, Korean</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Handicrafts, 193–95</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Han’Guk Fertilizer Company, 236</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Han’guk Nylon Factory, 78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hangul generation, 52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hanjin group, diversification by, 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Heavy industry, 246</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and big business, 131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Big Push into, vi, 16, 81. See also Big Push into heavy industry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as capital widening vs. capital deepening, 246–47, 268</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and catching-up process, 19–20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>disaffection in machinery branch of, 103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>foreign debt as financing for, 95–96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>growth of, 55, 58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>increased share to, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>investment and productivity in, 107–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and Japanese occupation, 34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>POSCO as turn toward, 293</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ROI of, 88, 89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>state promotion of, 81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hierarchical structure, in Korean firms, 172–73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>History of Korea, modern, 27–29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>during Cold War, 35–38</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Subject Index

and contradictions of modernization, 31-35 and legacy of Yi dynasty, 29-31 military regime policies in, 63-64 new business group rises, 39-41
and U.S. aid, 38-39

Hong Kong
firm size and value-added in, 162
high-fashion houses in, 260
investment by, 119
and late industrialization through learning, 4, 140
and textiles, 249
trade coefficient of, 70, 72
workweek length in, 205

Human capital education as, 239
indicators of (seven countries), 218
in Korea, 46

Hyosung (chaebol), 132

Hyundai (group), 73 cement firm in, 262
diversification by, 116, 125, 128
HHI helped by, 270-71, 286-87
joint ventures by, 83
subsidiaries in studied, 16 total capabilities as strength of, 273
and VLSI Project, 83

Hyundai Cement Company, 266-67
and HHI, 287

Hyundai Construction Company and HHI, 269n, 276, 286
and U.S. military, 232, 266

Hyundai Engine and Heavy Machinery Manufacturing Company (HEMCO), 279-80

Hyundai Heavy Industries (HHI), 269-74
cost control at, 282, 284-86
and design capability, 273, 279 foreign technical assistance for, 276-77, 278 Hyundai group mobilized for, 286-87 and Korean government, 273-76
nonshipbuilding to total exports ratio for, 290 problems of, 277, 278-79, 281, 289 (p.366) project management at, 288-89 quality control at, 280-82, 283, 289
R&D by, 287-88

Hyundai Merchant Marine Company, 279-80, 278

Hyundai Motor Company (HMC), 175-79
founding of, 267
GM compared with, 179-80
and HHI, 286
QCCs in, 281
and Shinjin, 15
subcontracting by, 179, 180, 184–87
Hyundai Precision Industries, 184
Illicit wealth. See Profiteering and illicit wealth
IMF. See International Monetary Fund, in Korea
Imitation, 20, 329
Imports, Korean barriers to, 145
and liberalization, 77, 145
restrictions on, 70
Import substitution, and Indian handicrafts, 194 Import substitution, Korean. See also Diversification; Subsidies, Korean
in accumulation model, 63
and automobile industry, 85, 155 and diversified business group, 243, 246
and electronics, 82
foreign debt as financing for, 95–96
government role in, 80
importance of early efforts in, 268 measurement bias in, 155n
new wave of, 81
and profitability, 88 and steel industry, 316
subsidies for, 155
Income per capita, in Korea, 48 Income distribution, Korean, 16–17n and agriculture/land reform, 38, 146 and post-coup goals, 49
India, v
and democracy-expansion relation, 148
diversified business groups in, 151
and five-year plan, 84
human capital indicators in, 218
investment by, 118, 119
and Korea (income), 48
and labor organization, 194
large and small firms in, 161
and late industrialization through learning, 4, 140, 320
and multinationals, 147
as potential competitor for Japan, 63
school population of, 217
and steelmaking, 291, 314
subsidies in, vi, 8
technical assistance to, 215
wage increases in, 196
zaibatsu-like groups in, 115

Industrial enterprise, modern. See Modern industrial enterprise

Industrialization. See also Late industrialization catching-up process in, 18–20
  and concentration, 115
  relative speeds of, 5–8 and salaried manager, 159
  state role in, 11–18

Industrialization, Korean, 7–8
  and Japanese colonialism, 33–34

Industrial policy. See State

Industrial Revolution, First, 3, 4 apprenticeship in, 224
  and education, 216
  guided by laissez-faire principles, 12, 143 invention in, v, 4, 6, 59
  vs. late industrialization through learning, 4–5
  scientific content of, 6

Industrial Revolution, Second, 3, 4
  and education, 216, 226
  infant industry protected in, 143 innovation in, 6. See also Innovation
  vs. late industrialization through learning, 4–5
  and Schumpeterian view, 140
  scientific content of, 6–7
  state intervention in, 12–13

Inflation, in Korea, 100–101, 102
  and Big Push, 103
  Far East vs. Latin America, 202 and growth/stability relation, 49–50 and 1960s policies, 142
  and 1980s austerity program, 109
  and U.S. occupation, 44

Informal sector, in Korea, 195

Infrastructure, Korean (p.367)
  from colonial past, 32, 142 financing of, 95–96
  and government subsidizes for HHI, 276 and government for POSCO, 297

Innovation, 6–7
  and catching-up process, 18, 59, 328–29
  and earlier industrializing nations, v, 4
  and entrepreneurship, 79
  and GM subcontracting, 179 and lack of theoretical knowledge, 22
  and late industrialization, 141
  and learning, 321
  and Schumpeter, 140
U.S. superiority in, 319–20
Innovation capability, 173, 174
Institutional wear and tear, and Korean stabilization, 101–4 Interest rates
   and industrial expansion, 144
   multiple, 145
   state intervention in, 13
Interest rates, Korean, 73–74, 96, 97, 144
   vs. foreign (1965–70), 94
   liberalization of, 77, 144
   multiple, 144
International aid to Korea. See Foreign aid to Korea; International Monetary Fund, in Korea; World Bank, in Korea
International division of labor, 18–19, 57, 59–63 International Monetary Fund (IMF), in Korea, 64 and austerity measures, 108
   and interest rates, 73, 74
   and Korean debt buildup, 96, 97
   and Korean shipbuilding, 275–76
   and U.S. policies, 43
Intraenterprise expansion, 245. See also Diversification Invention, 6, 319–20
   and earlier industrializing nations, v, 4
   and United States, 320
“Invention Award” from Korean government, 237
Inventory systems, just-in-time, 183 Investment
   government vs. market determination of, 99–100
   and industrial expansion, 144
   international comparison of, 119
   private vs. social rates of return on, 322–23 Investment, Korean, 72–76
   and chaebol diversification, 128
   and oil crisis, 98
   state and private roles in, 85 Investment capability, 173, 174
Iron and Steel Industry Promotion Law (January 1, 1970), 197
Italy. Hyundai technology from, 175 Japan. See also Korea-Japan comparisons and bigness, 118
   capacity reductions in (1920), 132
   and cheap labor, 18
   and debate on industry options, 324
   distribution of large firms by industry in, 165
   diversified business groups in, 125, 151. See also Zaibatsu economic concentration in, 122, 123
   and education, 215, 216–17, 220, 227
   firm size and value-added in, 162
and free market, 149, 322
and government budgets, 88 “Growth-Doubling Plan” of, 84 growth-productivity dynamic in, 110 inexperienced engineers in, 229
and international division of labor, 59-63
and international migration, 191, 192
investment by, 118, 119
Korean diplomatic recognition to, 64, 74, 77 labor supply in, 193-94
and land reform, 147
as late industrializer, v, 4, 11, 12, 140, 320
and liberalization policies, 76-77 military hegemony period in, 116-17
population of, 190-91
and Rhee, 42
and salaried managers, 159, 160 (p.368)
steel costs and efficiency in, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300
subsidies in, 8
textile industry of, 249, 261
trade dependence of, 71
and U.S. innovation, 319-20
wage dispersion among industries in, 206, 207
wage increases in, 78, 189, 196, 198
wages sex differential in, 204
and wages vs. technology/organization, 143
Western interpretation of growth in, 149
workweek length in, 205
zaibatsu of, 9, 61, 115. See also Zaibatsu Japanese colonialism in Korea, 29, 32-33, 34-35, 53
and agriculture, 53
and history of textile firms (“D” and “L”) history, 247 and Korean education, 220 and Korean homogeneity, 28 and Korean steel, 293, 295
and workweek, 10, 206
Japanese influence on Korea
in relation to HEMCO components, 280
in relation to HHI marine engines, 279 in relation to Hyundai technology and equipment, 175, 176 in Korean history, 8, 27, 28-29, 31-35 and Korean investment, 74 and Korean Left, 35-36
and Park on modernization, 51
in quality control circles, 251-52
as shipbuilding competitor, 271, 282, 284
in smaller firms, 180-83 subsidies needed for competition with, 68, 143 textile plant rebuilt, 248
on workweek length, 205, 206
Johnson, Chalmers, 149
Just‐in‐time (JIT) inventory system, 183
Kanebo Company, 247
Kawasaki Shipbuilding Company, 276, 277
Keiretsu, 125
Keynesian economics, and U.S. policies, 43
KIA group, 126
Kolon (chaebol), 132
Kolon Nylon, 78
Korea, North. See North Korea
Korea, South, 3
and debate on industry options, 324
distribution of large firms by industry in, 165
firm size and value-added in, 162
and free market, 322
Golden Age(s) in, 48, 200, 253
government expenditures in, 93
human capital indicators in, 218
investment rate of, 119 as late industrializer, 4, 8–11, 146, 320. See also Late industrializing countries learner-to-creator transition of, 328–29 Olympic Games in, 327, 328
size of, 72
workweek in, 10, 205–6, 212
Korea Democratic Party (KDP), 36–37 Korea-Japan comparisons colony-colonizer, 141 competition vigor, 145-46
discrimination against women, 203 economic concentration, 121–22 education, 215, 216–17, 220, 227 exchange rate policy, 62
exports, 61, 62
and Hyundai quality circles, 178 income, 48
inflation, 49–50
and Japan as sui generis, 62-63 labor costs, 68
land reform, 147
managerial recruitment, 229 productivity, 8, 10, 260, 261, 300 self-financing, 85
shipbuilding, 269, 271-72, 274, 289n (p.369)
small- and medium-size firms, 180-83
state discipline, 147 steel-making, 296, 297, 298-300
subsidies, 8-9, 143
wage dispersion among industries, 206, 207 wage increases, 189, 196, 198, 200, 249 wages sex differential, 204
Korea-Japan relationship. See Japanese colonialism in Korea;
Japanese influence on Korea
Korean agriculture. See Agriculture, Korean; Land reform, Korean Korean big business. See Big business; Chaebol; Diversified business groups; Modern industrial enterprise Korean diversified business groups. See Chaebol Korean education. See Education in Korea Korean exports. See Exports, Korean Korean government intervention. See State, Korean Korean history, modern. See History of Korea, modern Korean industrialization. See Late industrialization in Korea Korean infrastructure. See Infrastructure, Korean Korean military. See Military, Korean Korean People's Republic, 36, 38
Korean salaried managers. See Managers, salaried, in Korea Korean Standards Association, 252, 281
Korean state. See State, Korean Korean technology transfer. See Technology transfer to Korea Korean-U.S. relation. See United States relationship with Korea Korean wages. See Wages, Korean Korean War and cotton textiles industry, 248 and Hyundai Construction, 266
    and Korean steel mills, 293
Korea Shipbuilding and Engineering Company, 15, 275, 287, 290
Kukje-ICC group, 15
Kwangyang steel facility, 293, 294, 306, 309, 317
Kyongsong Spinning and Weaving Company, 64
Kyungnam Company, 15 Labor
    and government subsidy policy, vi
    strikes by, 101
Labor, skilled. See Skilled labor or craftworkers Labor aristocracy, in Korea, 195
    as male, 204
    at Pohang Iron and Steel, 209-12
    and wage segmentation, 208-9
Labor costs, in Korea, 102, 108
Labor-intensive industries and managerialism, 166
and need to subsidize, 14, 68, 142–43
profitability data on, 85, 86
textiles as, 301

Labor market
and Korean wages, 206–9
of late industrialization, 189–90
segmentation of, 206–9, 212

Labor organization (trade unions)
lack of, in Far East, 202
and late industrialization, 320
obstacles to, 192–95
Park on, 131
in textiles industry (Korea), 251
and wage dispersion (Korea), 208

Labor policies. See Personnel policies, Korean

Labor productivity, Korean. See also Productivity, Korean in cotton textiles, 249–50, 252–53
growth rate of, 102, 107
of POSCO, 296
of POSCO vs. Japan, 300
in shipbuilding, 272

Labor relations, 324–25

Labor supply
and catching-up process, 18–19
and international migration, 191–92
in Korea, 191, 198–99
and obstacles to labor organization, 192–95
and population, 190–91

Land reform, Korean under American occupation, 37–38
in Japan and Taiwan, 54, 147 and state power, 52, 147 (p.370)
and wages, 202–3

Late industrialization in Korea, 4, 8–11, 146, 320 controlling pace of, 99–100 and diversification, 239. See also Diversification and state, 27, 99–100, 147. See also State, Korean

Late industrializing countries, v, 3, 5, 140
and bigness, 118
creating of competitiveness in, 292 and democracy vs. dictatorship, 148 difference in histories of, 141–42 and diversification/coordination, 125 diversified business groups in, 151, 244–45. See also Diversified business groups and education, 10, 215, 216, 227–28. See also Education in Korea facets of growth in, 79 factors promoting, 8
and five-year plan, 84
and free market-efficiency relation, 328
government intervention in, 146
growth-productivity dynamic of, 109-12, 150, 152-53, 323 and international lending organizations, 43 labor in, 189, 208-9. See also Labor supply
and labor relations, 324-25
through learning, v, 3-5, 141, 150 See also Learning, in late industrialization learning paradigm of, 320-21
and liberal market ideals, 323
oligopolistic competition in, 150
and reindustrialization, 319 and salaried managers, 160. See also Managers, salaried and Schumpeterian view, 140-41 small- and medium-size firm in, 161-64. See also Small- and medium-size firms, Korean social rates of return in, 322-23
and specialization, 155
state role in, 11-14, 55. See also State subcontracting in, 187
theory of, vi wages in, 195. See also Wages Latin America and debt, 94
inflation in, 202
population growth in, 191
subsidies in, 143
technical assistance to, 215
Law for Dealing with Illicit Wealth Accumulation, 72
Learning. See Investment capability; Production capability; Productivity; Shopfloor management; Technology transfer; and individual industries Learning, in late industrialization, v, 3-5 and competitiveness, 292 and firm’s behavior, 212
vs. innovation, 141
and Korean student movement, vi
and Korean wages, 190
and market-augmenting paradigm, 150
and output growth, 111
and technical assistance, 20 Learning-by-doing, 152-53
at HHI, 277, 278
and POSCO, 317
in textile industry, 249-53 Learning curves for blast furnaces, 303
for textile company ("D"), 250 Liberalization, 76–78, 94, 120, 131, 133–34, 137, 141
    and austerity, 108
    current pressures for, 328 financial, 134–36
    as ineffective, 147
    and interest rates, 77, 144
    as reaction to aid threats, 142 result of, 136
    and theory vs. practice, 322
    trade, 134
Liberal market ideals, 323
Loans, foreign. See Foreign borrowing by Korea
Localization ratio, of POSCO, 317 Lucky-Goldstar group, 19
    diversification by, 116, 126–27
    joint ventures by, 83
    and VLSI Project, 83
Machine productivity, in “L” company, 252–53. See also Productivity (p.371) Management, shopfloor. See Shopfloor management Managerial hierarchy, in Korean firms, 172–73 Managers, salaried, v, 9, 159–61. See also Engineers and heavy industry, 19, 246
    inexperience of, 227–28, 229
    in Japanese textile industry, 61 and modern industrial enterprises, 164–67
    promotion of, 228–29
    technological capabilities of, 173–74 Managers, salaried, in Korea, 9–10
    and chaebol diversification, 128
    in Cheil Wool, 238
    education level of, 225–26
    at HHI, 288–89
    inexperience of, 227
    and lower wages, 61
    numbers of, 170–71
    at POSCO, 213, 315
    promotion of, 228–29
    in supplier firms, 188
    in textile firms, 259
    in top management, 168–70 wage level of, 229–31
Mando, Inc., 176, 184
Maritime Research Institute, 288
Market-augmenting paradigm, 141, 145, 148, 150, 153
    and discipline mechanism, 145–46
Market concentration. See Economic concentration Market-conforming paradigm, 139, 141, 145, 147, 153, 155 discipline in, 145
   and exports (Korea/Taiwan), 143 hidden premises of, 146
   and moral philosophy, 153
   and Western views of Japan, 149–50
Market explanation for economic development, 11–12
Marketing, of Japanese textiles, 61
Market mechanism or forces, 4, 11 and agriculture under Japanese, 34 and backward countries, 12, 13
   and dynamics of comparative advantage, 244 dysfunctional aspects of, 322–24 with economic concentration, 137 and efficiency, 99
   and Korean “liberalization,” 78
   and late industrializers, 4
   and pace of industrialization, 99–100 and state role in industrialization, 13–14
   U.S. commitment to, 321–22
Medium-size firms, Korean, 161–64
   Japan's influence on, 180–84
Meiji reform and rulers, 14, 51–52
Mexico, v
   direct foreign investment in, 76
   government expenditures in, 93
   human capital indicators in, 218
   investment by, 118, 119
   and late industrialization through learning, 4, 140
   school population of, 217
   wage dispersion among industries in, 207
   wage increases in, 196
   workweek length in, 205
Migration of workers, international from Korea to Far East, 34
   from Korea to Mid-East, 100, 192n, 198–99 restriction of, and labor supply, 10, 191–92 Military, Korean, 38, 48–52
   and April Revolution, 38, 42
Military coup of May 1961, 37, 48, 49, 52, 64, 142
Mitsubishi
   at end of WWII, 117
   and Hyundai, 175, 176, 177
Mitsubishi Research Institute (MRI), 311
Modern industrial enterprise, 9, 123–24, 125, 140, 160, 164
   and diversified business group, 151. See also Diversified business groups in Korea, 164–68. See also Chaebol organizational chart for, 168–70 and small-scale firms, 160
Modernization, contradictions of, 31–35. See also Industrialization Monetary indicators, Korean, 96, 97
Monetary reform, Korean, 94
Monopolies, in Korea, 120–21
Monopoly power. See also Big business HHI given temporary, 273
  and inequality, 328
  and price controls (Korea), 17
(p.372) Monopoly Regulation and Fair Trade Act, 133
Multidivisional firms, 140. See also Modern industrial enterprise Multinational corporations, in Korea, 147. See also Direct foreign investment in Korea Nationalism, growth of, in Korea, 28 Nationalization
  of Korean banks, 16–17, 72–73, 142
  of Korean heavy electrical equipment industry, 132
Nippon Kokkan Steel, 295
Nippon Steel Company, Japan, 292, 295, 296
North Korea
  growth of, 40
  reforms in, 36
NTBs (nontariff barriers), 134, 145
Oil crises, Korean response to, 93, 98–99, 101, 104, 131, 304–5, 310
Oligopolistic competition, 129–30, 150
Oligopoly, 115. See also Big business in heavy industry, 19
  in Korea, 65, 120–21
  in late-industrializing countries, 145–46
  and market-augmenting paradigm, 150
  and market conformance paradigm, 150
Olympic games in Seoul (1988), 327, 328
Organizational structure of GM and Hyundai, 179–80
  HHI advantage from, 286
  managerial hierarchy (Korea), 172–73 of modern industrial enterprise, 168–70
Our Nation's Path (Park), 50
Overhead, in Korean industry, 10
Paradigm, proper understanding of, 320
Park Chung Hee, and Park regime, 14, 27, 48, 49, 50–52 assassination of, 104, 120, 131
  and banking system, 16 Comprehensive Stabilization Plan of, 94, 104, 109 on democratic pluralist policies, 130–31
  and exports, 68–69, 72
  and free market, 322
and higher education, 221 and model of accumulation, 63 restructuring under, 132 and Saemaul movement, 281n subsidies by, 66
and Tae Joon Park, 295
Paternalism in Korea, 325 of cotton textile firms, 252
and POSCO, 210
Pay rate. See Wages Peasantry, Korean
under Japanese colonialism, 34, 53–54
and Park's ambitions, 52 Personnel policies, Korean and labor aristocracy, 208–9 neglect of, 325
at Pohang Iron and Steel, 209–12
Peru
firm size and value-added in, 162
government expenditures in, 93
Philippines
government expenditures in, 93
large to small firms in, 161
zaibatsu-like groups in, 115
Planning
entrepreneurship as, 79–80
in Korea, 79–80, 84–85
Park on, 50–51
and Rhee, 51
Pohang Iron and Steel Company, Ltd. (POSCO), 73, 291–93, 316–18 capacity additions (phases) of, 293, 294, 304, 317
as capital deepening, 303–4 competition for, 298–301
founding of, 293–96, 303
HHI compared with, 269, 277
insularity of, 314
operating rates of, 303
organizational efforts of, 314–16 personnel policies and success of, 209–12, 314 plant specifications of, 294 priorities of, 304–5 (p.373) productivity and yield as aim of, 305–9 profitability of, 296–97 quality as aim of, 309–14
subsidization of, 297, 301
technical assistance to, 295–96, 302–3, 306, 309
Population, and labor supply, 190–91
President's Industrial Award, 248
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Price controls, in Korea, 17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prices. See also Relative prices</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>real estate, 103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>state intervention in, 13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Private enterprise</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and planning (Park), 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and U.S./Korean military, 49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Production capability, 173, 174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Production Engineering Department (PED) of HHI, 284</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Production orientation, in Korean manufacturing, 172. See also Shopfloor management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Productivity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and capital deepening, 246-47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in dynamic of late industrialization, 109-12, 113, 150, 323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and engineers, 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in Japan (textile mills), 261</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in Japan vs. Britain (textile mills), 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of large vs. small/medium-size firms, 163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and late industrialization, 5, 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and market paradigm, 323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>measurement bias in, 112n</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in shipbuilding, 272</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and U.S. labor management, 213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Productivity, Korea</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of automobile industry, 176-79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in dynamic of later industrialization, 5, 8, 152-53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and government subsidy policy, vi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>growth of, 118-19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of POSCO, 296, 297, 305-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and POSCO absenteeism/turnover rate, 212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of POSCO vs. Japan, 300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of shipbuilding industry, 282-86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and stabilization programs, 107-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of textile industry, 78, 249-50, 251, 252-53, 260</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>through welding R&amp;D (HHI), 287</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Profitability</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and Korean industrialization, 88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in various Korean industries, 85-88, 89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Profiteering and illicit wealth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>chaebol in disfavor for, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>entrepreneurs subsidized by, 39-40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of Lee, 236</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Park regime's prosecution of, 72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Profit maximization</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>long-run approach to (HHI), 287</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>short-run approach to (Korean textile industry), 253, 255-57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Project management, at HHI, 288-89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Protest</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
April Revolution (1960), 42–43
as disciplining of state, 148 and Korean stabilization policies, 101
Public sector resource balance, 90 Quality control
at HHI, 280–82, 283, 289
at Hyundai, 178, 179
in Korean textile firm (“L”), 261
at POSCO, 309–14
and U.S. influence, 46 Quality control circles (QCCs)
in cotton textile industry, 251–52
and HHI, 281
at HMC, 178
and personnel function, 325
at POSCO, 310
Quality dumping, 282, 310
Quit rates, at POSCO, 212, 314
Rate of return, gross, for Korean industries, 85–87
Ratio of localization, of POSCO, 317
R&D (research and development), and education, 227
R&D, in Korea, 328–29
by Cheil Wool, 238
for electronics, 83
and government incentives, 14, 328
and government subsidy policy, vi
at HHI, 287
industrial activity form, 8
investment in, 328
by POSCO, 310–11, 318
in textile firm (“D”), 248, 249
Real Effective Exchange Rate (REER), 105, 106, 107 (p.374) Reform
by Japanese in Korea, 32 land, 37–38, 146–47, 202–3
in 1876–1910 period, 28 Relative prices
and exports, 69, 153–55
and marginal productivity theory, 155 and market conformance, 141, 147–48
and subsidies, 144
as “wrong” (distorted), v, 13–14, 18, 139, 145, 155, 320
Rent seeking, 20–23, 235. See also Discipline of business; Profiteering and illicit wealth and government intervention, 16–17, 327
by state or business, 145–47
Research and development. See R&D, and education; R&D, Korea Restructuring, 132–34
Return on investment (ROI), for light and heavy industry, 88, 89
Rhee, Syngman, and Rhee administration, 39, 42, 43–44
  antagonists of, 27
  and banking, 16, 142 corruption of, 43–44, 47 and Lee, 236
  and planning, 51
  and U.S. aid, 39, 43, 45
Saemaul movement, 281
Salaried managers. See Managers, salaried Samho Company, 15
Samsung Electronics, 236
Samsung group, 19, 73
  Cheil Wool affiliate of, 235–38, 246, 258
  diversification by, 116, 125
  as generalist in manufacturing skills, 258
  joint ventures by, 83
  management system in, 237–38
  in shipbuilding, 272–73, 290
  subsidiaries of studied, 16
  and VLSI Project, 83
Saudi Arabia, cement plant export to, 267
Savings, and industrial expansion, 144 Savings, Korean and inflation decline, 109 and interest rate increase, 74, 75, 94
  and oil crisis, 98
Schumpeterian view of industrial expansion, 140–41, 146, 153
  and discipline, 145
Scientific advancement, and invention vs. innovation, 6
Scientific content, and technology transfer, 7
Scotlithgow (Scottish shipbuilder), 276, 278
Second Industrial Revolution. See Industrial Revolution, Second Segmentation of labor market, 212
  and Korean wages, 206–9
Self reliance, and technical assistance, 21
Shinjin company, 15
Shipbuilding industry complexity of, 272–73, 289
  in Japan, 271–72
  refusal of delivery in, 278
  vs. steelmaking, 272–73, 277
  worldwide volume of, 269–70
Shipbuilding industry in Korea, 87 government assistance to, 80–81, 273–76
  government favoritism in, 73
  by Hyundai Heavy Industries, 269–89. See also Hyundai Heavy Industries and import substitution, 155
Shocks, Korean response to, 93, 146 Shopfloor management, v, 160. See also Engineers; Productivity; and specific industries in cement, 262–67
competitive advantage in, 4–5, 10 in cotton textile mills (Korea), 253, 260–61 at Hyundai Motors, 176–79
in new-technology industries (Korea), 209, 212–13
and overhead, 321
in POSCO, 212–13, 305–9, 314–16
in U.S., 213
Short-run profit-maximizing behavior, in Korean cotton textiles industry, 20, 253, 255, 257 Short-run stabilization policies, Korea. See Stabilization policies, Korean (p.375) Singapore education and human capital in, 217, 218
investment by, 118, 119
and late industrialization through learning, 4, 140
and textiles, 249
trade coefficient of, 70, 72
Skilled labor or craftsmen and art vs. science, 7 and Korean shipyards, 284 late industrializers' lack of, 193
as male (Korea), 204
scarcity of (Korea), 224–25
and U.S. labor management, 213 and vocational training (Korea), 223–24
and wage dispersion (Korea), 208–9
Small- and Medium-Industry Systemization Law, 188 Small- and medium-size firms, Korean, 161–64. See also Subcontracting cartelization of, 183n government discrimination against, 181–82 and Hyundai subcontracting, 180
Japan’s influence on, 180–84
Social discount rates, 322–23
Social services, in Korea, 18, 92
South Korea. See Korea, South
Specialization, and late-industrializing countries, 323–24
Spinners’ and Weavers’ Association of Korea, 64, 65
survey of, 66
Spinning of cotton. See Cotton textile industry, Korean Spin-off firm, 245
Ssangyong Cement Company, 262, 265
R & D by, 328–29
Subject Index

Ssangyong group, 15, 73, 132
Stabilization policies, Korean, 93–94, 109
  and austerity, 108–9
  debt financing, 94–96
  and determining pace of industrialization, 99–100 and first stabilization, 96–98
  and inflation, 100–101, 102, 108–9 institutional wear and tear from, 101–4 productivity as key in, 107–8 and second stabilization, 98–99 and third stabilization, 104–6 Stages theories, 244, 246
State (government), 11–18 discipline of business by, 14–18, 63–64, 120, 129, 145–47. See also Discipline of business; Rent seeking as entrepreneur, 79–80, 84, 144
  and growth-productivity dynamic, 112, 113, 150 hostility toward in United States, 321
  and liberal market ideals, 323
  vs. market mechanism, 13–14, 99–100
  and relative prices, v, 13–14, 18, 147–48, 320 subsidies from, 8–9, 143–44. See also Subsidies in Taiwan, 162 State (government), Korean, 146 and accumulation model, 63–64
  big business in harmony with, 130, 136, 151 and chaebol, 88, 152
  consolidation of power by, 52 and democratization, 327–28
  and entrepreneurship, 17, 80–93, 112
  and HHI/shipbuilding, 273–276
  industrialization pace determined by, 99–100 Industrialization retarded by, 27 intervention by, 14–18
  investment by, 72–76, 88, 90–92
  and Japanese occupation, 47
  and land reform, 37 “liberalization” policies of, 76–77
  vs. market mechanism, 78
  Park on, 50
  and POSCO, 292, 315, 316, 317
  protest as disciplining of, 148 stabilization policies of, 93–109 subsidies from, v–vi, 235. See also Subsidies, Korean and wage determination, 200 and “wrong” relative prices, v, 13–14, 18, 139, 145, 155, 320 and Yi dynasty (Pallais), 29–30
Statistical quality control (SQC), 282, 310
Steel industry, shipbuilding compared with, 273, 277
Steel industry in Korea, 87, 291 costs for, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300 (p.376)
government favoritism in, 73
history of, 293
and import substitution, 155
minimills, 73, 301, 316n Pohang Iron and Steel, 291–318. See also Pohang Iron and Steel Company, Ltd. shipbuilding dependent on, 274 wage difference for, 251
Students, Korean, vi, 52
vs. military/U.S., 42, 48
protests by, 42–43, 52, 148 Subcontracting, 161. See also Small- and medium-size firms, Korean by Hyundai Motors, 179, 180, 184–87
by Japanese firms, 183
in Korean industry, 183–84, 187–88
in late industrialization, 187
and POSCO “contracted-out” workers, 209–10, 314
Subsidies, 143–44, 146
to exporters in late industrializing countries, 68 and ideal interest rate, 144
in late-industrializing countries, 8–9, 13
in market-augmenting paradigm, 150
Subsidies, Korean, v–vi, 143
in accumulation model, 63
and capital flight controls, 17–18
and diversification, 127–28
and exports, 66–68, 74, 78
for HHI, 276
and investment opportunities, 235
for POSCO, 297, 301
progress from, 155
Sunkyong group, 135
Synthetic fiber industry, 78
Taihan group, 15
Taiwan, v, vi, 140
agricultural labor force in, 203
diversified business groups in, 151
economic concentration in, 121, 122, 123
and education, 215
firm size and value-added in, 162
and government budgets, 88
government expenditures in, 93
and Japanese colonialism, 53
and Korea (income), 48
land reform in, 149
large-size firm in, 9
large and small firms in, 161–63
and late industrialization, 4, 11
and liberalization policy, 76–77 market-conformance pressures on, 143
as POSCO competitor, 301
reforms in, 141
state discipline in, 146–47
state management needed in, 148
subsidies in, 8, 143
and textiles, 249
trade coefficient of, 70, 72
vertical disintegration in, 245
wage increases in, 196
wages as advantage of, 143
as yacht competitor, 259
zaibatsu-like groups in, 115

Tariffs, Korean, 70, 145, 301
Taxation, in Korea, 18. See also Budgets, government Technical assistance. See Technology transfer Technical expertise, and heavy-industry competition, 19
Technical training, Korea. See Training for Korean workers; Vocational training, in Korea
Technological capability, elements of, 173–74
Technology Development Promotion Act (1972), 328 Technology and technological change of cement firm (Ssangyong), 265 Cheil Wool acquisition of, 237
in growth model, 110 and Japanese education, 220
and Korean/Japanese wage rise, 189 and range of firms, 160–61
  as Schumpeterian discipline, 145 Technology transfer (technical assistance), 20, 329 business appreciation of, 22–23
  in dynamic of late industrialization, 152, 153
  by Germany vs. England, 21–22 imitation vs. apprenticeship in, 20 and late industrializing countries, 215 from POSCO to USX, 292 (p.377)
  and productivity, 111 and salaried managers, 9 and science, 7
  transfer ratio for, 264

Technology transfer to Korea, 20, 21, 22, 23. See also Japanese influence on Korea
    for cement industry, 262, 263, 264, 266–67
Subject Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>Page(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>to Cheil Wool, 238</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for electronics, 82</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and HEMCO standards, 280</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for HHI, 276–77, 278</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for HMC, 175</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>from independent consultants, 234, 248</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>from machinery suppliers, 233–234, 248–49</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>through overseas learning, 233</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for POSCO, 295–96, 302–3, 306, 309</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>by sector and plan period, 263</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for textile industry, 61, 248, 249, 255–57, 261, 263–64</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>from U.S., 231–33, 234, 266</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and wages, 190, 209</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Terms of trade, Korean, 56</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>deterioration and improvement of (1979–82), 104</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Textile industry. See also Cotton textile industry, Korean</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and cement industry, 262–64</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cheil Wool in, 236–38</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>factors in success of, 78</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>vs. steel industry, 304</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and synthetic fibers, 248</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wages in, 207</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thailand</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>government expenditures, 93</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>zaibatsu-like groups in, 115</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Time and motion studies, at HHI, 282, 284</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tokugawa regime, of Japan, 8, 29</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tongyang Cement Corporation, 73</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Top management in Korea, 168–70</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Toyo-Company, 247</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Toyota Corporation, and Daweo Motors, 184</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trade associations, Japanese, 61</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trade liberalization, 134. See also Liberalization</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trade policies, Korean, 64–70</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>export dependence of, 70–72</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trade unions. See Labor organization</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Training for Korean workers. See also Education in Korea;</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vocational training, in Korea</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>abroad, 22, 302, 305</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>at HHI, 227, 282</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>at Hyundai Cement, 267</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>at POSCO, 210–11, 301, 302–3, 305–6</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.S. aid for, 46</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Turkey, v</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>diversified business groups in, 151</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>firm size and value-added in, 162</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>human capital indicators in, 218</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>large to small firms in, 161</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
and late industrialization through learning, 4, 140
and steelmaking, 291
subsidies in, vi, 8
wage increases in, 196
Turnover rates, at POSCO, 212, 314
Underdevelopment, and population, 11
Underemployment, and exports, 72
Unemployment in, Korea
among educated, 216, 221, 315
in 1960, 48
in 1978–85, 107
Unions. See Labor organization
United Kingdom. See Britain United States
conglomerations in, 124
and debate on industry options, 324
distribution of large firms by industry in, 165
diversification in, 115, 124, 126 education-unequal conflict in, 226–27
firm size and value-added in, 162
Hyundai technology from, 175
and innovation, v, 7, 18, 59, 319–20
and interest rates, 73–74
investment by, 119
and Japanese annexation of Korea, 31 labor management in, 213
labor relations in, 325
and market mechanism, 321–22
merger movement in, 132
modern industrial enterprise in, 123
population of, 190–91
school population of, 217 (p.378)
Second Industrial Revolution in, 3, 4, 12
self-financing in, 85
shipbuilding by, 271
steel costs and efficiency in, 296, 297, 298, 300
steel prices in, 317–18
trade dependence of, 71
trade unions in, 193
vertical disintegration in, 245
wages in, 59, 197–98, 207, 231
and wages vs. technology/organization, 143
white-collar vs. blue-collar workers in, 171
workweek length in, 205
United States relationship with Korea aid, 38–39, 43, 45, 46–47, 52, 64, 67 economic policies, 43–44 educational assistance, 220
and Korean cotton-textile exports, 56–57, 66, 143 and Korean exchange rate, 105 and Korean history, 27
and Korean liberalization, 135
and Korean military, 49
and liberalization, 328
and occupation, 36–39, 47 radical opposition to (Korea), 43 steel-coal joint venture, 314
steel export restrictions, 301n technical agreement, 43 technology transfer, 231–33, 234, 266
United States Steel (USX), and POSCO, 291–2, 318
Vertical disintegration, 245 Vertical integration
by Cheil Wool, 238
and GM, 179
by Hyundai group, 125, 278
and Hyundai Motors, 180
by KSEC, 290
VLSI Project, 83
Vocational training, in Korea, 223–25. See also Training for Korean workers as compulsory, 252
and universities, 228
Voest-Alpine steel firm, 302
Wage dispersion, 10, 206–9
Wages
as comparative edge, 143, 292
in early industrializers, 196–98
international comparison of, 230–31
and international division of labor, 59, 60–61
in Japan, 78, 189, 196, 198, 204, 206, 207
in Japan vs. Britain, 60 in late industrializers, 5, 10, 195
Wages, Korean, 10, 189, 195, 196, 197, 198–200 and agricultural sector, 202–3 and demand for labor, 200–201
and educational level, 229–31
fall and growth of (1980s), 108
growth of (1976–78), 100–101, 102
inequity of, 146
vs. Japan (steelmaking), 300 and length of workweek, 205–6 and low wage base, 189, 202
and paternalism/peace, 325
at POSCO, 209–10, 212, 296, 318
and R&D, 328
and segmentation, 206–9, 212
and state intervention, 208 and technology transfer, 190, 209
in textiles industry, 249, 251 and women workers, 10, 172, 203–4
and world markets, v, 56, 61, 63
Welding Research Institute, 287–88
Western Europe
Industrial Revolution in, 5–6
steel prices in, 318
and U.S. aid (Korea compared with), 64
workweek length in, 205–6
White-collar workers
in Korean industry, 10
proportion of, in Korea and U.S., 171–72
Windfall gains, 235 from aid, 39–40. See also Profiteering and illicit wealth; Rent seeking Women, Korean discrimination against, 10, 172, 203–4
as workers, 203–4, 208, 222
in textile mills, 250–51, 252
Workers, attitude of, at Hyundai, 178 (p.379) Workers, migration of. See Migration of workers, international Work force
Korean, 10
Middle East migration of (Korean), 100
Workweek length, 205–6
Korean, 10, 205, 206
at POSCO, 212
World Bank, in Korea, 64. See also Bretton Woods institutions and Korean shipbuilding, 275–76
on Korean steelmaking, 291
and liberalization, 133
survey by, 144
and U.S. policies, 43
World War I, and Japan in Asian market, 62
World War II, and zaibatsu, 34, 117 Yangban class entrepreneurs from, 33
and KDP, 37
Yi dynasty, 29–31
Zaibatsu (Japan), 9, 61, 115
diversification of, 125, 127
and Korean industrialization, 34
and medium/small enterprises, 181
WWII success of, 117
Zero Defect campaign, at POSCO, 310
Subject Index

Access brought to you by: