GENERAL EDITION: Professor Vaughan Lowe,

Chichele Professor of Public International Law in the University of Oxford and Fellow of All Souls College, Oxford

DEFINING TERRORISM IN INTERNATIONAL LAW
The aim of this series is to publish important and original pieces of research on all aspects of international law. Topics that are given particular prominence are those which, while of interest to the academic lawyer, also have important bearing on issues which touch upon the actual conduct of international relations. Nonetheless, the series is wide in scope and includes monographs on the history and philosophical foundations of international law.
